[Despatch Abstract.]

Pension - Compassionate gratuity - Kesi Rao, late Process Server District Court, Bellary - Grant to widow - Sanctioned.

Copy of letter from the District Judge, Bellary, No.6025 dated 24-10-42.

1. I have the honour to forward herewith the applications from Thippamma, widow of B. Lakshmayya and Maharatti Jadhu Ambu Bai, widow of Kasi Rao, late process servers of the District Court, Bellary for the grant of compassionate gratuity under G.O. No.120 Fin(Pen.) dated 22-3-32.

2. Petitioner Thippamma's husband B. Lakshmayya was entertained in this department on 3-9-1910 and had put in a total service of 31 years, 11 months and 2 days up to 5-8-42, the date of his death. He was drawing a salary of Rs 15 per month. He has left behind him the applicant(wife), one daughter and a son aged 13 years. He has no property either moveable or immoveable. He has not insured his life as he was getting a low salary. He has also left a debt of Rs 66 in Govt. Servants' Cooperative Society, Bellary. There is nobody to protect the petitioner and her son. During the period of service the deceased was fined Rs 0-8-0 in November 1912 and Rs 1-0-0 in 1925 and warned for delay in returning the processes in 1925 and they are not serious lapses.

3. Petitioner Maharatti Jadhu Ambu Bai's husband Kasi Rao was entertained in the Revenue Department on 4-8-1911 and got himself transferred to the Judicial Department as process server on 28-10-1928 and had put in a total service of 30 years 11 months and 22 days up to 26-7-1942 the date of his death. He has left behind him the applicant(wife) and two daughters aged 15 and 8 years respectively. The petitioner states that her husband had been separated from his parents and living separate for the last 11 or 12 years. He has no property either moveable or immoveable. He has not insured his life as he was getting a low salary of Rs 14 per month. He has also left a debt to the extent of Rs 39 in the Govt. servants' Cooperative Society, Bellary. There is nobody to protect the petitioner and her daughters. During the period of service the deceased had the following punishments:-

(i) The period of absence on 2-3-36 was treated as suspension for one day in 1936.

(ii) Suspended for 4 months from 11-11-1936 for noting a false return in 1936.

(iii) His pay for 2 days was stopped as he overstayed on 8-4-41 and 9-4-41.

I submit that the petitioner should not be penalised for the actions of her husband.

In these circumstances the cases of petitioners deserve consideration and I recommend the grant of Rs 100 only as compassionate gratuity to each of them.

The service registers and the record of enquiry by the Revenue Department and the descriptive rolls of the ~~x~~ petitioners are herewith submitted. Payment may be ordered to be made at the Sub-Treasury at Bellary.

From the Revenue Inspector, Bellary, No. N. Disc. 692/42 dated 4-9-42. 42

Resubmitted.

2. B. Thippamma, wife of late B. Lakshmayya was enquired into. She has a major daughter aged 15 years who is residing with her husband and a minor son aged 13 years. Her husband has contracted a loan of Rs 66 in the Govt. Servants Cooperative Society. Her husband had neither amassed any property nor insured his life in any of the insurance companies.

3. J. Ambu Bai, wife of late Kasi Rao has only two daughters; the eldest is residing with her husband and the other minor daughter is under the guardianship of the petitioner. Kasi Rao had contracted a loan of Rs 39 in the Govt. Servants Co-op. Society. He too had neither amassed any property nor insured his life in any of the insurance companies.

(1) As Kasi Rao and Lakshmiah died in harness their families may be granted compassionate gratuity.

The record of enquiry is enclosed.

Honoured sir,

Sub: Application of Jadhu Ambu Bai for grant of compassionate gratuty.

I Mahratta Jadhu Ambu Bai,widow of Kasi Rao late Process server District Court Bellary begs to submit as follows:--

My husband Kasi Rao was first entertained in the Revenue Department on 4-8-1911and got himself transferred to Judicial Department as a Process Server on 28-10-1928. He has put in total service of years 30 months 11 days 22. at the time of his death on 26-7-1942. He died while he was in service. He has left behind himself, his widow the applicant and two daughters aged 15 and 8 years respectively. My husband has been separate with his parents for the last 11 or 12 years. He has not left any moveable or immoveable property. He was not able to save anything as he was drawing a low salary of Rs.14/- per mensem. He has not insured his life also. There is no body to protect me and my daughters. Besides he has left a debt to the extent of Rs.39/- in the Government Servant's Co-operative Society.

In these circumstances I request your honour to recommend me to Government for grant of compassionate gratuty in consideration of my husband's long service in Government.

I beg to remain,
Honoured sir,
Your Most obedient servant
